Discussion Questions

The Bible warns us of the snares of the devil. What are some common snares you believe marriages fall victim to?

How have you worked to avoid these snares in your marriage and family?

In your group, discuss some of the boundaries you have set in your marriage.

How does your prayer life change when you realize the enemy of your child is the devil?

Discuss as a group some of the practices you would like to employ in the discipleship of your children.

Has there ever been a time that you felt like the devil had a foothold in your marriage? How did you work through that?
