

WEEK TWO

INTRO

Attitude. After being anointed as the next King of Israel, David returned to shepherding and went back to being the butt of his brother's jokes. He was running the cheese to his brothers on the battle line.

LEADER LIFTER

You made it to week two! That's fantastic. We hope that it has been an encouraging time. In this week's leader lifter, you will learn about sub-grouping and ways to get others in your group involved.

ICEBREAKER

Heroes

Ask each group member to name three people, past or present, he or she admires and why. Or ask, "If you could interview anyone in history, who would you choose and why? What one or two questions would you ask?"

Tip: People will have interesting answers to these questions. It would be best to utilize this icebreaker for a small group focused on bonding. Members of your group will most likely talk about people who have impacted their lives personally, so it may take longer than other icebreakers.

DISCUSSION VIDEO

This week Pastor Randy Wade talks about a tough decision he made as a child. Even though he believed it was the right thing to do, it was not easy. It was just a step toward God's plan for his life. The thing that made the difference was his attitude through all of it.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Did you ever feel called by God to make a decision you didn't fully understand? What happened?

Sometimes we make a move hoping that this will be a solution, but it turns out it's just a step. What was it about Pastor Randy's attitude that made a difference?
